

Job Description

Web Developer

Job brief

xKern builds software and services that are at the heart of everyday life. Our products blend in with the lifestyle of people through its easy of use and great user experience. So it's important for us to make efficient, fast, reliable and scalable core architecture for our software.

We are looking for talented web developers to build the next generation web applications and websites

Responsibilities

- Create beautiful and easy-to-use websites for large userbase.
- Creativity to make attractive designs based on product and use cases.
- Understand different platforms, create elements to facilitate each platforms unique perks.
- Identify and implement user experience cues.
- Collaborate with backend team to fulfill project requirements.

Requirements

- Knowledge in modern concepts of web development, user experience and design.
- Versed in HTML, CSS, JavaScript and TypeScript.
- Fairly good experience in networking on front-end (REST APIs, Web sockets, realtime communication etc).
- Good experience with new specifications of ECMAScript (ES6).
- Good experience in modern JavaScript frameworks like Vue or React (React is preferred).
- Build re-usable front end components and libraries in TypeScript and a modern JavaScript library.

- Strong of knowledge of DOM and webpages and skill in DOM manipulation.
- Skill in creating fluid animations and transitions.
- Great understanding of browser features like notifications, location etc.
- Experience in writing web applications that deliver great fluidity and user experience.
- Experience in authorization technologies like JSON Web Token and OAuth2.
- Experience in locations based APIs and frameworks like google maps.
- Willingness to invest time on research and trial and error to learn new technologies to be adopted into our software solutions.
- Knowledge of browser APIs, compatibility and conflicts and resolving them to deliver a streamlined user experience on all browsers and platforms.
- Ability to quickly adopt emerging popular web technologies.
- Experience with ESLint or willingness to quickly learn to work with it.
- Experience with front end development tools like Webpack, npm, yarn etc.
- Experience in git is a must.

Expected Experience

1-6 years.

